INFORMATIONAL ITEMS:

2023 National Brownfields Training Conference. Craig Larsen and Brooke Lammert attended the National Brownfields Conference in Detroit this past week. Larsen provided a recap on how the conference provides a platform for participants to learn about the latest technologies and strategies for cleaning up and reusing contaminated properties.

Takeoff North America 2023 Conference- Recap. Trent Moyers traveled to Atlantic City, NJ for the Takeoff North America Conference. This conference is focused entirely on aviation route development. Moyers went to potentially meet with several airlines, however, only one meeting was held.

Child Care Partnership Grant - Washington Department of Commerce. The Washington Department of Commerce is soliciting applications to support local partnerships to develop action plans that stabilize and expand childcare capacity in communities. Stacie de Mestre and Brooke Lammert are representing the Port to partner with numerous local businesses in the valley to make childcare more affordable and available in the Wenatchee Valley. The Regional Port will be submitting a Grant Application by the end of the month.

Weather Radar Issue. Kuntz reported there are five active Doppler radars in WA State that monitor real time weather. None of those five radars cover below 10,000 feet in the northeastern slope of the Cascade Mountains. All or part of six counties along the eastern slope of the Cascades are impacted by the lack of coverage. The Regional Port will brief the Congressional Delegation on this issue during meetings scheduled with them on September 18th.

At 11:45 a.m. Commissioner Spurgeon called for a 10-minute break.
